DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This is a large frame house similar in basic design to several others on Oakley Street. The main portion is a rectangular block under a slate hip roof with a center chimney. A wing has been added to the rear of this. On the front of the house is a large hip roofed dormer with a double window. The slate roof is ornamented by a band of imbricated shingles. The two bay front facade is spanned by a one story porch supported by Doric columns. A row of dentils ornament the cornices of the porch, the roof, and the dormers, although the house is otherwise fairly plain. The house is well kept up and has a large open yard on the north, with an arbor supported by two parallel rows of Doric columns.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This early 20th century house is similar to several others on Oakley Street and may have been built by a local contractor named William Thomas, who constructed homes in this style. This is a fairly plain, but attractive and well kept up home.
